Philanthropy, the act of giving to others without expecting anything in return, is a universal human impulse that transcends cultural and geographical boundaries. Throughout history, people from all walks of life have dedicated their time, resources, and talents to helping those in need.

Philanthropy in the World Traditions is a groundbreaking book that explores the diverse and fascinating philanthropic traditions of the world. This comprehensive volume brings together leading scholars from around the globe to provide a rich and nuanced understanding of how giving has shaped societies and cultures throughout history.

The book is divided into four parts, each focusing on a different aspect of philanthropy.

1. Part I: Historical and Theoretical Foundations examines the historical roots of philanthropy and explores the different theoretical perspectives that have been used to understand it.
2. Part II: Regional Traditions of Philanthropy provides an in-depth look at the philanthropic traditions of specific regions, including Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Americas.
3. Part III: Contemporary Issues in Philanthropy discusses the challenges and opportunities facing philanthropy in the 21st century.
4. Part IV: Case Studies offers a close-up look at some of the most successful philanthropic initiatives from around the world.

Philanthropy in the World Traditions is an essential resource for anyone interested in philanthropy, non-profit organizations, or the history of social change. It is a must-read for scholars, practitioners, and anyone who wants to learn more about the diverse ways in which people have given back to their communities.
