Shoghi Effendi was the Guardian of the Bahá'í Faith from 1921 to 1957. He was the grandson of Bahá'u'lláh, the founder of the Bahá'í Faith, and the son of 'Abdu'l-Bahá, the first Guardian of the Faith. Shoghi Effendi was born in Haifa, Israel, in 1897 and spent his early years in 'Akká, the city where his grandfather was imprisoned by the Ottoman Empire.

In 1921, when Shoghi Effendi was just 24 years old, he was appointed as the Guardian of the Bahá'í Faith by 'Abdu'l-Bahá. This was a momentous event in the history of the Bahá'í Faith, as it marked the beginning of a new era in the development of the religion.

As Guardian, Shoghi Effendi played a pivotal role in guiding the Bahá'í Faith through a period of great change and growth. He established the Bahá'í World Centre in Haifa, Israel, and oversaw the construction of the Bahá'í House of Worship in Wilmette, Illinois. He also translated many of Bahá'u'lláh's and 'Abdu'l-Bahá's writings into English and oversaw the publication of numerous books and articles on the Bahá'í Faith.

Shoghi Effendi's work as Guardian had a profound impact on the Bahá'í Faith. He helped to spread the religion to new parts of the world and to establish a strong foundation for its future growth. He also played a key role in shaping the Bahá'í Faith's administrative structure and its approach to social and economic development.

Shoghi Effendi Through the Pilgrim Eye is a unique and captivating book that offers a rare glimpse into the life of this remarkable figure. The book is based on the personal accounts of pilgrims who visited Shoghi Effendi in Haifa and 'Akká. These accounts provide a fascinating insight into Shoghi Effendi's character, his work, and his vision for the Bahá'í Faith.

For anyone who is interested in learning more about the Bahá'í Faith or the life of Shoghi Effendi, I highly recommend reading Shoghi Effendi Through the Pilgrim Eye. This book is a valuable resource for anyone who wants to gain a deeper understanding of this important figure and his contributions to the Bahá'í Faith.
