Pastor armor bearers serve as a vital bridge between the pastor and the congregation. They are the first point of contact for church members, offering a welcoming and responsive presence. By handling administrative tasks, scheduling appointments, and coordinating events, armor bearers free up pastors to focus on spiritual leadership and ministry.

A Shield Against Distraction

In the face of countless demands, pastors can easily become overwhelmed by distractions that hinder their ministry. Armor bearers act as a protective barrier, shielding pastors from unnecessary interruptions and allowing them to prioritize their time and energy.
