X was a young woman who worked as a prostitute in Washington, D.C. In 1972, she was hired by G. Gordon Liddy, a top aide to Nixon, to help bug the Democratic National Committee headquarters at the Watergate Hotel. X's involvement in the Watergate break-in was never publicly revealed, but she has since come forward to tell her story.

In White House Call Girl, X reveals the shocking details of her involvement in the Watergate scandal. She describes how she was recruited by Liddy, how she helped bug the Democratic headquarters, and how she was threatened by Nixon's aides to keep her silence.

White House Call Girl is a bombshell exposé that reveals the truth about the corruption and cover-ups that brought down a president. It is a gripping story of sex, betrayal, and political intrigue that will fascinate readers of all ages.
